

Bio for Tripp Smith

VP of Sales

Tripp Smith is the Vice President of Sales for Paradigm. Tripp has extensive experience in laboratory sales and client education and relations. Tripp has been working in clinical toxicology since January 2010 and has worked for Paradigm since January 2014.

Tripp served as a Graduate Assistant at the Georgia Military College. He received a Master's Degree in Adult Education, Training and Leadership from the University of Georgia. He has a BS from Wofford College.

Tripp is known for his customer service skills and team leadership. Tripp is well-respected by his peers and is committed to ensuring patient-centered toxicology testing and laboratory support for healthcare professionals.

